Petitioner avers that he is now the holder and owner of said warrant; that the same was duly presented for payment on the 30th day of Oct., 1868, and not paid for want of funds, and was so endorsed by the county-treasurer; and that the same bears interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from and after the date of said endorsement; and that the whole amount of said warrant and interest is now due and unpaid, to wit, the sum of twenty dollars, with six per cent. interest thereon from and after the 30 day of Oct., 1868, for which sum petitioner asks judgment.

163 Wherefore, and by reason of the premises upon the several counts and causes of action set out as aforesaid, plaintiff claims that said defendant, the County of Carroll, of the State of Iowa, is justly indebted to him in the aggregate sum of twenty thousand dollars with interest at six per cent. per annum from the date of the commencement of this suit, for which sum plaintiff asks judgment with costs of suit.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF CARROLL County, Iowa.

Be it remembered that, heretofore, to wit, on the 10th day of May, A. D. 1870, came the above-named relator, John Reynolds, by his attorney L. W. Reynolds, and filed in the clerk's office of said court his information for a mandamus against said respondents The Board of Supervisors of Carroll County; which said information was in words and figures following, to wit:

THE UNITED STATES, ON THE RELATION OF John Reynolds,
vs.
THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF CARROLL County, Iowa.

173 To the judges of the circuit court of the United States for the district of Iowa:

John Reynolds, who avers that he is a citizen of the State of Indiana, comes and gives this court to be informed that, on the 12th day of May, 1869, by the judgment and consideration of this court, on due process of law he recovered judgment against the County of Carroll for the sum of $19,947.00, and costs, taxed at $65.20, and six per cent. interest from the date of said judgment; that execution has been issued upon said judgment and returned "no property found;" that the County of Carroll is a municipal corporation, existing under the laws of and a citizen of the State of Iowa; that, by the laws of the State of Iowa, the public and private property of such corporation is exempt from execution; that the County of Carroll has no property subject to execution out of which said judgment can be made; that the business of said corporation is managed by a board of supervisors who control all its financial affairs, cause its taxes to be levied and collected, and whose duty it is to provide for the payment of all judgments 174 against it.

That it is provided by the general laws of the State of Iowa, that when a judgment is rendered against a civil corporation, a tax shall be levied, as early as practicable, sufficient to pay off the said judgment, with interest, and costs.

That the relator has made a demand upon the board of supervisors of Carroll County to levy a tax sufficient to pay said judgment, and altho' ample time has elapsed, they have refused and neglected so to do; that the valuation of said taxable property of said Carroll County is not less than two million of dollars.

Whereas, it has been represented to our circuit court of the United States for the district of Iowa, that John Reynolds is a citizen of the State of Indiana; that, on the 12 day of May, A. that execution has been issued upon said judgment and returned "no property found;" that the County of Carroll has no property out of which said judgment can be made; that, by the laws of the State of Iowa, the public and private property of such corporation is exempt from execution; that the business of said corporation is conducted and managed by the board of supervisors, who manage its financial affairs, cause its taxes to be levied and collected, and whose duty it is to provide for the payment of judgments rendered against it; that the general laws of the State of Iowa require that when a judgment has been rendered against a municipal corporation, its proper officers shall, as early as practicable, levy and cause to be collected a specific tax to pay the same; that the board of supervisors are the proper officers to perform that duty; that demand has been made upon them that they levy and collect such tax, and although sufficient time has elapsed therefor, they have neglected and refused, and still neglect and refuse so to do; that the relator is without any other adequate remedy at law.

187 And on this day, to wit, the 12th day of May, A. D. 1871, came said respondents, by their att'ys, and filed in said clerk's office the following additional return to the alternative writ of mandamus issued in said cause:

Return & showing of defendants.

United States cir. court, district of Iowa.

THE UNITED STATES, EX REL. JOHN REYNOLDS, ag't THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF CARROLL County, Iowa. } May term.

To the judge of the United States circuit court of the district of Iowa:

Now comes the Board of Supervisors of Carroll County, Iowa, and, for return to the alternative writ of mandamns issued by this court at the May term thereof, 1870, and for cause why no peremptory writ should issue directing them to levy a tax as prayed, show the court the following:

188 1. The indebtedness on which the relator's judgment is founded was evidenced by ordinary county warrants, which purported on their face, and were, in fact, issued for the ordinary expenses and expenditures of said county, and no part of same were issued by authority of any vote of the people of said county for any extraordinary expenditures for any work of internal improvement. Said board of supervisors and their predecessors have, for the year 1870, and intend for the year 1871, and each subsequent year till said judg't is paid, to levy a tax of four mills on the dollar, which the maximum tax allowed by law for county purposes.

And for further cause they show the court the following: In 1867 the population of said county was 688, and in 1869, 1,450, as shown by the State census for these years.

2nd. Jan. 1st, 1867, the indebtedness of said county was in the sum of	$15,730 73
3rd. During the year 1867 there was issued county-warrants for all purposes the sum of	53,050 64
During the year 1868	48,943 42
" " " 1869	54,774 77
189 Making the total indebtedness Jan. 1, 1870	$172,528 46
4th. There was paid on this debt, during the three years last named by the collection and disbursement of taxes, the sum of	30,393 53
Leaving the debt, exclusive of interest and costs	142,134 93

5th. The only public improvement as the result of this expenditure consists of a court-house of the value of about $2,500, and a few inferior bridges of a value of from 8,000 to 10,000 dollars.

The reasonable and ordinary expenses of the county for the years above named, including the salary of county officers, is, upon a fair and liberal estimate, about fourteen thousand dollars. And these respondents say that, during the three years last-above named, there existed a corrupt combination and confederacy between the county officers of said county and a majority of the several boards of supervisors for each year for the express purpose, and with the design of fraudulently, and without consideration, issuing to each other, and divers other persons, large amounts of the county warrants of said county. In pursuance of 190 the corrupt combination and confederacy, all the above-named indebtedness, including the indebtedness on which relator's judgment was rendered, was created, and county warrants issued therefor.

In further pursuance of said combination and confederacy, judgments were rendered, by fraud and collusion of said boards of supervisors and said county officers, in this court, in the years 1868 & 1869, in the aggregate sum of $71,048 34

Also, in the same manner, judgments have been rendered against said county in the sum of $16,868 43

In all, the sum of 87,916 77

These judgments were rendered upon a part of the indebtedness above set out, including the judgment of the relator.

These respondents pray a reference to the judgments in this court. The same are wholly unpaid except a small amount. The exact amount they are unable to state.

191 Respondents further state that the Iowa R. R. Land Company, a large tax-payer of said county, about October, 1870, filed a bill in chancery in this court against Carroll County, and all the plaintiffs of the several judgments in this court, included in the $71,048.84 if the judgment above named, including the relators, which is still pending and undetermined. Said county did not take any steps to set aside said judgments because its action was controlled, until Jan'y 1st last, by the fraudulent combination aforesaid. Respondents have heard said bill in chancery read over and know the contents thereof, and that the facts and matters therein stated are true, and they ask that the facts therein stated be taken as part of this showing.

Said county also designs asking this court to be made a party plaintiff to said bill to set aside said judgments, and they ask the court to continue this cause until said bill shall be finally determined.

192 Respondents further show the court that, about September 6, 1870, the board of supervisors of said county, in obedience to the alternative writ of this court, levied a tax of one-half mill on the dollar upon all the taxable property of said county to pay said judgment, and the treasurer of said county made return thereof accordingly.

Said taxes were levied in pursuance of the combination aforesaid. Wherefore respondents submit whether they ought or are bound to levy any judgment-tax to pay said judgment.

STATE OF IOWA, Polk County:

I, W. S. Winnett, being duly sworn on oath, say that the foregoing return and showing, and the facts therein stated, are true, as I verily believe; and further, that I am a member of the board of supervisors for said county.

W'M S. WINNETT.

(Endorsed:) Filed May 12th, 1871. George B. Corkhill, clerk.

193 And on this day, the 13th day of May, in the May term, A. D. 1871, of said court, in the records of the proceedings thereof in said entitled cause, appears the following entry, to wit:

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS CARROLL COUNTY. } No. 891. Law.

This cause, coming on for hearing, the plaintiff, appearing by Reynolds & Grant, and defendants by Hubbard & Cook, the same is continued by consent of parties.

194 And on this day, to wit, the 17th day of October, A. D. 1871, comes relator, by his att'y, and files in said clerk's office his de-murrer to the answer of respondents; which said demurrer is in words and figures following, to wit:

THE UNITED STATES, ON THE RELATION OF John Reynolds,
vs.
THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF CARROLL County, State of Iowa. } 891.

Now comes John Reynolds, relator in the above-entitled cause, and demurs to the answer of defendants herein, and for cause of such demurrer, says:

1st. That said answer is insufficient in law.

2. That there can be no limit in the amount of the levy, but the amount of the judgment.

195 3rd. That a levy of any less amount than sufficient to pay off the judgment is not a compliance with the writ of mandamus issued in this cause.

4. It is no defense to said writ that the officers of the county have committed frauds, or issued warrants unlawfully, to which is not alleged the plaintiff was a party.

5. None of the facts set up as stated in the return show any bar to the writ.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Att'y for Relator.

196 And on this day, to wit, the 17th day of October, in the October term, A. D. 1871, of said court, in the records of the proceedings thereof in said entitled cause appears the following entry, to wit:

THE UNITED STATES, EX REL. JOHN REYNOLDS,
vs.
THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF CARROLL County. } No. 891. Law.

Now comes relator, by Reynolds, his attorney, and the board of supervisors of Carroll County, by Hubbard & Cook, their attorneys, and the plaintiff having demurred to the return of said defendants, the court sustained the said demurrer, and the defendants abide by their demurrer; and thereupon it is ordered and adjudged that a peremptory writ of mandamus issue in said cause, commanding the defendants to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay said judgment. And thereupon defendants pray a writ of error to the Supreme Court, which is allowed to them on their filing a bond conditioned as the law directs, to be approved by the court, in the penal sum of thirty thousand dollars.

197 The following is the original writ of error sued out and allowed in said entitled cause:
